THE WORLD IS LISTENING TO POPE FRANCIS:

WHAT IS HE SAYING TO US IN 'LAUDATO SI?'

YOU ARE INVITED!

'Laudato Si' is probably the most widely talked about papal encyclical for decades. Pope Francis is sending a message to the whole world about why we must act to save our world from ecological disaster, injustice and poverty.
And the world is listening!

Come and join the Live Simply group and help us as we explore the Pope's Encyclical and try to find ways that we might respond to it practically.

We'll read together, share our thoughts and ideas and make some plans for the months ahead in our faith communities.
